Thought for the Week Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time 29th October 2023

October draws to a close with Halloween. There was no fuss when I was a child, but it became more prominent as my children were growing up. Many years ago the parish took up a suggestion by a Catholic organisation to celebrate a 'Night of Light' with our young people, instead of Halloween. The term Night of Light better describes 31st October than the association we now have with witches, zombies, skeletons etc. because it is indeed All Hallows Eve, the evening before All Saints Day.

November begins with All Saints Day, a Holy Day of Obligation, when we are invited to celebrate all those unknown saints who are now in heaven. Perhaps members of our own families are among them. It is important that we give thanks and show our gratitude to those who have persevered and handed down the faith through the generations.

On the 2nd November, the Church prays for All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day), those who have yet to enter heaven, but are undergoing a final purification in order to meet God face to face. Again, family members and friends will be among them. We have the power to assist them in their transition through our participation in the Mass and our personal prayers and sacrifices.

The annual Blessing of Graves at Kidmore End cemetery (2pm, Sunday 12th November) provides an opportunity to pray for particular members of our parish who have died. We owe these people a great debt of gratitude for their commitment to building up the parish we have inherited. The least we can do is pray for them.

During November, with thoughts on those who have died, we must heed carefully the words of St Paul,

"We would have you be clear about those who sleep in death, brothers; otherwise you might yield to grief, like those with no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, God will bring forth with him from the dead those who have fallen asleep believing in him."

(Thes 4:13-14)

May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

We ask you please, to pray for the following people who continue to ask for your prayers;

Please pray for Kim, Paul and Joe Bunton (Joe has severe learning difficulties and the family are struggling to find help or any respite care.) The parents have had to give up their jobs to look after Joe and they desperately need your prayers that they will find help.

Please remember in your prayers those whose anniversaries occur at this time including;

Kevin Geherty, Oliver Keogh, Theresa O'Shea, Monsignor Michael Hoban, Frederica Mary King, Christine Thompson, Cher-Vaughan Issel, Deacon, Paul Grosvenor, Fr. Frank Dawson Archbishop Maurice Couve de Murville, Suzanne Meyers, Anna-Maria White, Margot Gubbin.

Throughout November we remember family and friends who have died. Please write the names of those people who you wish to be prayed for on a piece of paper or use one of the printed lists at the back of Church and then put this in an envelope and into the basket on the altar. Those who have died will be remembered at every Mass that is celebrated.
