

Entrance Antiphon:

O Come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

Psalm response:

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

Acclamation:

Alleluia! Alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

The Apostles Creed is on page 456. / Nicene Creed is on page 455

After the Bidding Prayers:

Remember, O most loving Virgin Mary, that it is a thing unheard of that anyone ever had recourse to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, and was left unaided.
Filled, therefore, with confidence in your goodness,
I fly to you, O Mother, Virgin of Virgins.
To you I come, before you I stand, a sorrowful sinner.
Despise not my poor words, O Mother of the Word of God,
but graciously hear my prayer. Amen.

To conclude the Bidding Prayers: [Diocesan Prayer for Vocations]

Heavenly Father, we ask you to send labourers into your harvest.
Inspire in the hearts of your people vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life.
Bless our families with a spirit of generosity,
so that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Communion Antiphon:

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things.

PARISH NEWSLETTER*Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time*7/8 February 2026*Week 2 - Rome

I am currently being formed for the priesthood in the Venerable English College Rome. It is a privilege to be training in the heart of the Church, making friends from all over the world and experiencing the richness and diversity of Catholic faith. However, these past few months have been extraordinarily special. In October King Charles came to Rome on an historic visit. All the British seminarians and religious were invited to St Paul's Outside the Walls for a moving and powerful moment of ecumenical prayer. After the service we met the King who proved to be a very charming and witty man but also one with a profound faith as he shared some of his experiences of visiting the Birmingham Oratory and the impact this had upon him. A week after the King's visit, at the Mass in which St John Henry Newman was declared Doctor of the Church, the College was invited to serve for the Holy Father himself. It was such a joy and has left a lasting impression on me not only having the chance to meet the Pope, but more importantly to serve for him at the celebration of Mass, the source and summit of our faith. It was clear from meeting him that Pope Leo is a man of deep prayer, humility, wisdom and holiness. He has inspired me to be more intentional with my prayer life, to deepen my relationship with God and to serve others with a greater zeal. I hope he has proven an inspiration to you too. I could write so much more, the conclusion of the Jubilee year, the growing veneration of the 44 martyrs of the Venerable English College or some of the outstanding Biblical theology I am currently receiving at the university. Suffice to say I am immensely grateful that the Lord, through the Archbishop, invited me to study in Rome. Next week the growth of hope.
